

REACHING FOR SUCCESS

Ladies, here's to our strength, our unyielding spirit and to our success. It's not all about the fame and fortune. But about being brave enough to pursue it.

HERE'S HOW SA'S TOP

WOMEN GET IT DONE

1

RECOGNISE YOUR PASSION

It's what will push you to be your best

Cass Abrahams
Fine dining chef

She delights in bringing joy through her culinary creativity

NOT AFRAID TO GET OUR HANDS DIRTY

43% of the global agricultural workforce are women

BE A SELF STARTER

Nobody is going to pursue success for you, but you

Rapelang Rabana
Entrepreneur

They said she couldn't hack it on the international business stage. She did

2

SHOOTING FOR THE STARS

In 1963, Valentina Tereshkova became the first woman in space

3

LEAD FROM THE FRONT

That way no one can hold you back

Christine Ramon
Director of Sasol

Who's the boss? She is

TIMES, THEY ARE A CHANGING

Sri Lanka – the first country to elect a female leader in 1963

BE PREPARED TO SWIM AGAINST THE TIDE

It'll be tough. But success is worth the effort

Natalie du Toit
3rd Ever Olympic amputee

She was back in the pool, training, just months after losing her leg

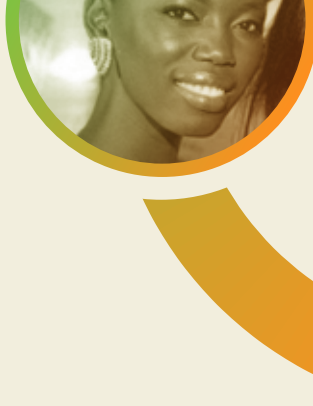

4

BLISTERING PACE

10.49 seconds – The women's 100m sprint record held by Florence Griffith-Joyner

5

STAY HUMBLE

No matter how far you go, always remember your roots

Lira
South African singer sensation

Her township beginnings are at the core of her award-winning music

AGE IS JUST A NUMBER

300 million plus – The number of records sold by Madonna with no signs of slowing down

SUCCESS COMES IN MANY FORMS

Whatever yours looks like, it's time to go out and get it

Sources

<http://www.forbes.com>
<http://www.leader.co.za>
<http://wonderopolis.org>
<https://www.wfp.org>
<http://www.history.com>
<http://www.w2wlink.com>
<http://eventiq.com>

Proudly brought to you by Direct Axis – Celebrating women everywhere this Women's Day

DirectAxis