Create a Safer Valley for Our Children

Programme:
We are currently busy finalizing the programme.

Here is more information about our speakers:

Guest Speaker: Prof Retha Boem
Prof Retha Bloem has been working on issues of child, youth and families throughout her career, starting as a lecturer at University of Pretoria, in 1989. She joined North West University (NWU) in 2011 where she founded and managed the Centre for Child, Youth and Family studies.

Feedback on Research report: Dr Ansie Kitching
Dr. Ansie Kitching is an Educational Psychologist at the Centre for Child, Youth and Family Studies, NWU. She co-authored, “The voice of the children in the Upper Berg River Valley”, research report.

More about the research report – “The voice of the children in the Upper Berg River Valley”
The Hanneli Rupert Getuienis Trust approached Dr Johannes Erasmus to explore and describe critical areas regarding the needs and challenges of children and youth (ages 3 - 23 years) in the Upper Berg River Valley (Wellington, Paarl and Franschhoek). This report was finalized early 2013.

Child Care Network: Kay Lorentz
Kay Lorentz is the Children’s Network Co-Ordinator at Connect Network. She has a history of working with Orphans and Vulnerable Children (OVCs) at a community level. In a partnership between Connect Network, Thando Trust and The Father's House Church, she is presently co-ordinating the development of community child care networks across Cape Town.
