

MAGGIE ZEELIE

Company Secretarial Specialist

084 514 6354

zeelie59@gmail.com

To avoid final deregistration of your company or close corporation, as per the notice below issued by CIPC, contact me for assistance. If you are unsure of the status of your entity, I will check same and advise you accordingly. Deregistration of your entity could have serious implications on you, your assets and your business. Remember – if you own a property and your entity is deregistered, the property by default devolves to the state. Take action now before 28 FEBRUARY 2015!

Companies and Intellectual Property Commission

a member of the dti group

NOTICE TO COMPANIES AND CLOSE CORPORATIONS

FINAL DEREGISTRATION OF COMPANIES AND CLOSE CORPORATIONS REFERRED FOR DEREGISTRATION DUE TO NON COMPLIANCE WITH ANNUAL RETURNS DURING JANUARY 2013

The Companies and Intellectual Property Commission (CIPC) will be finally deregistering companies and close corporations which have continued to fail to comply with the filing of annual returns, on 28 February 2015.

It should be noted that this final deregistration is only applicable to companies and close corporations that was referred for deregistration due to non compliance with annual returns during January 2013 and which have continued to fail to file annual returns.

Therefore, companies and close corporations that still have not complied with the filing of all outstanding annual returns are reminded to take the necessary steps in preparing to file annual returns (e.g. registering a customer code and depositing the required fee) and to subsequently file via the CIPC annual return website annualreturns.cipc.co.za, before 28 February 2015.