Merry Christmas!!

Editors note..

Christmas time, again. The last month of the year 2013. What a year? It had its ups and downs, highs and Lows. Yet another year comes to end. We can only bend our knees and thank God, our Savior for a year in which we were blessed. Yes everything did not go as planned this year, but we are still blessed. And therefor we have to stand up, go back to the drawing board but this time take God with you. Without our God we have nothing!!!!

Some people go on vacation, and some people will work, whatever you do be safe.

Take time to rest, to have fun and if you are a business owner what better time to plan for next year. Unfortunately I will not go on a vacation. Although I am not going on vacation this year, I will make a business trip to Cape Town and will make time for a little well deserved rest in that beautiful part of our country..

A special thank you to the "vibe" ladies who came on board this year to be part of Top Vibe. Tersia, Natasha and Hillary, thank you!!!!!! What a great pleasure to have you on board.

Top Vibe Magazine would like to wish each and every one a wonderful Christmas and the very best for 2014. May all your wishes come true, love one another, be kind, be considerate, be generous, be forgiving and most of all be thankful for what you are and for what you have in life.

This is our last Issue for 2013, but we will be back in January 2014.

Lots of love..... Charms.

Comē and havē a cupcakē with mē whilē wē look into thē History of thē Vaal Trianglē Part 4

The information in this article was written by: Norman Acton - Last update 2008. - OVERVIEW:

Vanderbijlpark:

The Second World War precipitated an increase in the nation's steel production beyond the capacity of the works in Pretoria and Dr. Hendrik van der Bijl, a technical adviser to the government, was persuaded to purchase a site from Vereeniging Estates at a place downstream of the Rand Water Boards intakes. This was the establishment of Iscor's giant steelworks with all facilities such as hospitals, schools, parks etc. The town, named Vanderbijlpark, was formally proclaimed in 1949 and achieved municipal status in 1952.

Dr. Van der Bijl's other contributions to the Vaal Triangle region were flotation of the Vanderbijl Engineering Corporation, Vecor (now Dorbyl Heavy Engineering - DHE), to provide for the country's heavy engineering needs and Amcor (now Samancor) to exploit mineral deposits and process them into ferroalloys for the steel industry.

Sasolburg:

A few years later, the South African Coal Oil and Gas Corporation (Sasol) was formed. The company was established due to South Africa's lack of crude oil reserves and dependency on imports. It developed world-leading technology for the conversion of low grade coal into oil.

The town of Sasolburg like its neighbouring town of Vanderbijlpark, was established as a planned model town in 1954, providing housing and facilities for its employees. Fuel production ceased in 1990 at the Sasolburg plant (Sasol One) but continues at its Secunda Mpumalanga plants (Sasol Two & Sasol Three) with capacity of 150,000 barrels per day or 32% of the country's oil consumption.

A New Era:

A profound restructuring of the South African economy has occurred since the election of the first democratic government in 1994. A new trade regime and industrial policy geared the country away from highly protective productive sectors towards a global market - oriented transformation based on price competitiveness. Coupled with this, turbulence in world steel markets impacted negatively on the Vaal's local economy.

The need to operate in global markets and the progressive reduction in trade barriers, forced local manufacturing and steel firms to reduce their labour intensity and costs in order to respond and become internationally competitive. The knock-on effect to this stream-lining, has been the downward trend in manufacturing activities. The Vaal is slowly emerging from this painful period of restructuring. The skills and infrastructures that made this region so dominant in the 20th century still remain. The revival of the local economy is echoing that of the resurging nation economy. Iscor, is now part of the worlds biggest steel producer, Arcelor Mittal Steel. Their head offices have been relocated from Pretoria to Vanderbijlpark and even though the increase in production over the last ten years has been slowed due to the recent global financial crises, the region is still ripe for inward investment.

The Vaal is a giant, ready to awaken from its slumber.

Customer Service.

By: Joelene Walters.

Who does not want to walk into a shop and be treated like a paying customer?

With Christmas upon us I thought I would write a little bit on how we lack customer service, and how irritating and frustrating it is when we do not get the full customer service we so deserve.

Following is a little story about the man, the boy and the hotel staff.

This story is frequently told to be true. Whether true or not, it is certainly powerful.

A man and a young teenage boy checked in to a hotel and were shown to their room. The two receptionists noted the quiet manner of the guests, and the pale appearance of the boy. Later the man and the boy ate dinner in the hotel restaurant. The staff again noticed that the two hotel guests were very quiet, and that the boy seemed disinterested in his food. After eating, the boy went to his room and the man went to reception and asked to see the manager. The receptionist initially asked if there was a problem with the service or the room, and offered to fix things, but the man said that there was no problem of that sort, and repeated his request. The manager was called and duly appeared. The man asked to speak privately and was taken into the manager's office.

The man explained that he was spending the night in the hotel with his fourteen-year old son, who was seriously ill, probably terminally so. The boy was very soon to undergo therapy, which would cause him to lose his hair. They had come to the hotel to have a break together, and also because the boy planned to shave his head, that night, rather than feel that the illness was beating him.

The father then said that he was shaving his own head too, in support of his son. He asked that the staff be respectful when the two of them came to breakfast with their shaved heads.

The manager assured the father that he would inform all staff and that they would behave appropriately.

The following morning the father and the son entered the restaurant for breakfast.

There they saw four male restaurant staff attending to their duties, perfectly normal, all with shaved heads.

How brave and how considerate of the manager and the staff.

Financial Advice before going on leave.

By PROFINAN SERVICES:

This time of the year is always rushed – everybody is tired, as the year has had many challenges, and just wants to get away.

Most of the time, we forget to verify a few important things, which are crucial, before going away for that long-awaited vacation:

- If you are a business owner – remember to finish off your figures for December 2013 well in advance – rather pay your VAT and PAYE earlier, than the due dates, as it is easy to forget and you'll be taxed with fines and penalties.

- Ensure that your Financial Advisor or Accountant is available during this period to handle requests from government departments, as these departments are running on skeleton staff, who may perhaps request information from you, whilst they perhaps do not have the background or history of your business.

- Ensure that you are sufficiently insured – check your insurance portfolio to avoid situations where you are under-insured.

- Check your credit facilities – make sure that your cards dates are still valid at your financial institution.

- Do not make any radical financial decisions – during this period the consumer market rises, which is necessary for a stable economy, but it is not always kind to your pocket.

- Remember to update your will (estate planning) on a yearly basis.

TAKE NOTE:

1) During the festive season scams are running high – watch out for sms- and internet scams. Rather consult your financial advisor first before getting involved or submitting any requirements.

2) Government and Financial Institutions (like Banks) will never ask you to verify your personal bank details, PIN No. or Account No. via e-mail or telephonic requests. Even if you should receive a letter (with the logo and details of a Government or Financial Institution – take heed – scammers can easily duplicate official documentation).

Enjoy the festive season, Act responsibly,

See you in 2014 which we believe will be a great financial year for us all!

So kan jy saam met Simeon 'n dowe kind help!!!

Dis Kersfees Vir My Simeon

'n Dowe blondkop-seuntjie van Secunda wat graag wil hoor het die sanger, Simeon Hamman, diep geraak. Toe Hamman van Hendrico Ackerman (5) gehoor het, het hy dadelik aangebied om met die uitreiking van sy nuutste liedjie, "Dis Kersfees vir my" 'n bydrae te maak tot die geldinsamelingsaksie wat op die been bebring is om vir Hendrico 'n koglea-inplanting moontlik te maak.

"Dis Kersfees vir my" is pas op iTunes uitgereik en kan teen R7 afgelaai word. Al die opbrengste tot op 31 Desember van hierdie liedjie op iTunes sal vir Hendrico geskenk word. "Dit is my geskenk aan Hendrico. Ek weet hoe swaar ons gesin gekry het toe my boetie, Timothy, doof geword het en wat dit uiteindelik vir hom beteken het om weer na soveel jaar te kon hoor," vertel Hamman, seun van die Afrikaanse musieklegende, Sonja Heroldt. Timothy was 12 jaar oud toe hy sy eerste inplanting gekry het. "Ek hoop almal wat hiervan hoor, sal die liedjie aflaai en so 'n verskil in Hendrico se lewe kan maak," sê Hamman.

Henrico, 'n gr. R-leerling aan die Laerskool Goede Hoop in Secunda, het dringend 'n koglea-inplanting nodig. Hy is van geboorte af erg hardhorend en so 'n operasie is al wat sal help dat hy in 'n gewone skool sal kan bly en met skoolwerk sal kan volhou. Volgens sy onderwyser, Marli Bruwer, is Henrico 'n baie intelligente seuntjie met baie potensiaal. "Dit is hoekom hy nog byhou met die skoolwerk, maar volgende jaar gaan hy beslis agter raak wanneer daar met klanke en spel gewerk word," verduidelik Bruwer. Sy ouers, Hannes en Wiekie Ackerman, het nie 'n mediese fonds nie en sal meer as R340 000 per oor moet opdok vir die inplanting, om hulle seuntjie te help. "Selfs al kry Henrico nou net een inplanting, sal dit sy toekoms verander," sê Hannes. "Dit is dringend"

Mense wat hierdie borrelende seuntjie wil help, kan Suzette de Beer van die Stigting vir kinders met 'n gehoorverlies, 'n geregistreerde nie-winsgewende organisasie, kontak by 012 333 3131 of 084 602 4310. Hendrico se verwysingsnommer is AB/HenricoA. Vir meer inligting bel Gary Glen, Hendrico se oom by 071 196 0807.

Blindfolds:

His father takes him into the forest, blindfolds him and leaves him alone.

He is required to sit on a stump the whole night and not remove the blindfold until the rays of the morning sun shine through it. He cannot cry out for help to anyone.

Once he survives the night, he is a MAN

He cannot tell the other boys of this experience, because each lad must come into manhood on his own.

The boy is naturally terrified. He can hear all kinds of noises. Wild beasts must surely be all around him. Maybe even some human might do him harm. The wind blew the grass and earth, and shook his stump, but he sat stoically, never removing the blindfold. It would be the only way he could become a man!

Finally, after a horrific night the sun appeared and he removed his blindfold.

It was then that he discovered his father sitting on the stump next to him.

He had been at watch the entire night, protecting his son from harm.

We, too, are never alone.

Even when we don't know it, God is watching over us, Sitting on the stump beside us.

When trouble comes, all we have to do is reach out to Him.

If you liked this story, pass it on.

If not, you took off your blindfold before dawn.

Moral of the story:

Just because you can't see God,

Doesn't mean He is not there.

"For we walk by faith, not by sight."

"Fate chooses your relations, you choose your friends."

My Kommin Troon.

Betty Boob

Nou die dag dinges ek amper heeltetal van my kommin troon af!

Ek en my vennoot moet n groot "do" reel vir n groot besigheid en dis met die wat ons toe nou begin bel agter mense aan wat gereeld uitstal by vlooiemarkte.

Dis groot pret om so "cold calling" te doen, want jy kry met die wonderlikste en aardigste karakters te doen. Dis met die gebellery dat ons afkom op die Groenewalds*. Dis nou grend mense en hulle ware is van "hoogstaande gehalte".

Dis denim en hout en staal en you name it, they sell it, en hulle soek 'n spesiale plek wat baie sigbaar is.

Dis ons eerste probeerslag met 'n vlooiemark en dus is ons hoogs tevrede met onself oor die grend mense wat sommer onmiddellik n stalletjie vat.

Soos die tyd verloop en nader aan die groot dag kom, begin ons navrae kry vanaf die grend Groenewalds*. Dis eers 'n opstairs email waarin hulle wil weet hoekom sien hulle nog niks in die koerante nie. Toe is dit n telefoon oproep met dieselfde navrae (na 'n, of so het ek gedink, goeie en volledige verduideliking).

Vir so ruk is dit stil en net voor die groot dag kry ons 'n besoek van die Groenewalds*. Sommer so met die intrapslag word ek ge"summons" met so lang (vuil) vinger om nader te staan. Ek is mos maar ordentlik en doen soos ek beveel word.

Dis Mnr en Mev Groenewald*! Hulle wil net kom kyk waar druk ons hulle in! Dit was nogal 'n gespook om die regte gaatjie te kry vir die grend mense, want niks is na hul sin nie, veral Mnr Groenewald*.

Dis toe nou met die groot dag wat die grend Groenewalds* daar aankom en na hul gaatjie toe ry met hulle grend voorraad dat ek toe nou sien hulle grend en my grand verskil hemelsbreed.

Die grend hout is ou Pine kombuisstoele, die staal is draadrakkies en die res van die grend bestaan uit droë vrugte!! Maar wat my amper van my troon af laat voeter is toe Mnr Groenewald* vir Mev Groenewald* skree: "kom jou dikg@t, kry die d....rse boks voor in die bakke!"

Dis toe net daar wat ek besef, kommin is beter.

Ek het maar styf aan my troon se armleunings vas gehou, want ek gaan hom nie nou opgee nie!
