Dear readers.

As a 4th year education student I have to complete my practicals. This means that I have to go to two different schools in two terms in order to complete my practicals. I have just finished my first term at a school in Pretoria. For someone coming from Meyerton and being used to how things are done here, it was quite intimidating stepping into a school where you know no one and also nothing about! It felt as if I was one of the learners rather than a teacher. I was pleasantly surprised after my first day as the teachers welcomed me with open arms and immediately made me feel like one of them. This is when I realized that life is busy teaching me a lesson. You never know what someone is going through nor how someone feels on a specific day. Your attitude towards someone can make or break that person. If the teachers did not make me feel welcomed that day, I would have probably hated every second of my 7 weeks there and second guessed why I am doing what I'm doing, but they welcomed me and my whole mindset changed.

I challenge you this month to go out of your way to be kind to someone at least once a day as you don't know in what mindset that person might be. Happy July!

Dear Top Vibe Awesome Readers
Once again we came to yet another month full of excitement and challenges. We tend to judge our situations far worst than thoses of others. Have you resently sat down and for just once thought about someone else situation and what you can do for them, how to help them, how to comfort them or just thinking of them.

This is my July month challenge to you, instead of thinking and worrying about your daily ups and downs think of someone you know that is going through a difficult time, if it is fiancially, seperations, divorse, loss or just feeling down, take the time to ask the question. How can I help you today? If we can help 1 person we will have made the world of difference.

August we have a big event coming up... Yes you guest right it is our Womansday Event where to get to celebrate how awesome and beautiful our woman of today are. Please make a note of this it will be on the 9th August in Vanderbijlpark keep an eye on our social media pages for more details, get your tickets still today big prize to be won so don't delay be part of the awesome event. I have an hard-working team behind me and this one will surely be for the books. I hope you are all safe and warm as this Winter came in strong and believe I don't easly get cold but I am freezing my toes off lately.... Take warm, try to stay health and support each other, don't judge cause you don't know what that person is going through rather smile and say how can I help you today.

With all my love

Carin 😊

Just a Mumble!!!!

By Lelanie van Niekerk

I really don't like winter. No more Friday afternoon braais and Saturday basking in the sun...

Therefore, I choose to JUST MUMBLE during winter, it is nothing more than complaining.

So, mumbling along LOL... I will indeed...

A childhood memory, I have of coming of winter, I remember the smell in the air changing the feel of the air and even how the clouds looked.

My nose can still smell winter a mile away... some people don't even notice it, but for some reason, I was born with a built-in weather forecaster, so how do you get to the point when you decide "OK today I will start wearing winter clothes?"? The thing is, during the whole year if I'm cold, I will wear warm clothing...but normally what happens is that I will dress and then it will be the hottest day ever!!!

As a result, I just wing it during the year when it comes to dress code

As for winter warmers, is there a summer cooler and what will it be?

Food and beverages are the same for me, people make soup in winter, I make soup all year round...

Mumbling about winter makes me feel better if there is one session, I will sleep through it will be this: "Maybe I was a bear once, hmmm".

Among other things I don't understand, I tend to eat less during winter and love to lose an extra kilo and it is easy for me... I can't do this during

I wonder how much one person can mumble about winter or if there were any historical well-known writers who wrote about this... let's see and consult the World Wide Web... LOL

As it turns out, I am not the only one who is complaining about winter in the first heading of one paper "You're not the only one'. But there wasn't a specific famous person who complained about winter, but I am sure there were a few.

any other session because it is too difficult...

What I did found was people that made winter famous which I think is even better then so let me share these remarkable individuals with you

So, this guy Roald Amundsen first reached the south pole, he was defiantly going the wrong direction is NORTH Roald the fat guy with the beard with all the presents is in the North Pole, but just look at him shame.

This I found very interesting in the South Pole in midsummer the max temperature is "listen MAX -25.9C "like who does this" For me this one it so far, the best LOL. So, apparently this guy Mathias Zdarsky AKA father of Alpine skiing was not the first to ski but invented the ski.

So, if you take the picture and all that snow I sure this guy invented the ski to get home quicker, to take a hot bath and some winter warmers LOL

Guys it gets better!!!

So, Peter Aschauer wait for it, invented the Avalanche Airbag... Yes, you read it correctly the Avalanche Airbag

I'm like way... what are you doing on a mountain or building houses on the sloops of active avalanches it's like volcanos WHY?

Peter nothing against you but maybe you should have invented the STOP sign DON'T BUILD OR HIKE HERE

Sure, at the time it was an excellent idee

Again, lady wrong direction it's the NORTH POLE...

SO, Helen Thayer was the first woman SOLO to travel to the Noth Pole...

"Wonder if her dog went along SOLO" LOL

Before I leave for the winter LOL good one, one article "People should stop complaining about winter" I read it, yes, this individual is trying to convince the readers that changing your cloths for winter and wearing the correct winter cloths will make winter much more enjoyable hmmmm tough one to crake... Lol

Don't get me wrong I love all aspects of the winter the change the smells but I would really love the most is to have skipped it all together...

So, guys enjoy the winter because I know I will like every other day

Just a Mumble Lol

"Vergeet My Hier" is die perfekte opvolg enkelsnit na Stephan se vorige uitgawes, insluitend "Amper Daar", wat in 2022 bekendgestel is. Hierdie nuwe liedjie het egter 'n heeltemal unieke tema wat uit Stephan se liefde vir die bosveld gebore is - 'n plek wat hy beskryf as sy "Happy Place". Dit is die plek waarheen hy gaan om te ontsnap van die stres van die lewe en om
