OUR AMBASSADORS

DYNE MULDER

Hi Maats

Hoop dit gaan goed en dat julle almal lekker gerus het en reg is vir kwartaal 3. Sjoë, het ek myself "mis-judged" om te dink Hoërskool is net so maklik soos die laërskool wel dink weer.

Kyk kwartaal 1 was moeilik en vreemd, maar die 2de kwartaal se eksamen was rof en dit het gevoel of ek maande lank eksamen skryf.

Ek was net te bly toe ons klaar geskryf het en ons kon by die huis bly. So ook het my swem seisoen begin, dit is nogal aanpassing weer ek was baie lank af weens ek gereeld siek geword het en het ook varkgriep gehad nie gedink mense kan dit ook kry nie maar nou ja ek was nog nooit so siek soos ek die jaar was nie, maar dankie tog ek is beter en kan weer normaal verkeer en aangaan.

Elke dag is 'n nuwe dag met nuwe uitdagings, maar ek kan nie kla nie ek het 'n baie goeie "support team" en is dankbaar vir elke dag wat ek kan opstaan al hou ek nie daarvan om in die koue op te staan nie en moet ek by sê die Winter is vrek koud sover veral as ek moet swem. Maats julle moet nooit in julle self twyfel nie elke mens is uniek gemaak ek sê my Ma gereeld ek is baie uniek 😊 sy moet verstaan as ek anders is LOL. Wel julle moet die res van die maand geniet ek dink baie hard aan watse interressante goedjies ek in die volgende uitgawe met julle kan deel.

Tot volgende keer
Dyne 😊

Dreary readers,

Self-perspective is the way in which we view and interpret ourselves, our beliefs, and our experiences. It shapes how we understand our own identity, values, strengths, and weaknesses. Our self-perspective can impact our behavior, thoughts, emotions, and relationships.

It is important to have a healthy and positive self-perspective, as it can lead to increased confidence, resilience, and self-esteem. However, negative self-perspective can lead to feelings of inadequacy, anxiety, and depression. Self-reflection, mindfulness, and seeking feedback from others can help us develop a more accurate and balanced self-perspective.

By understanding ourselves better, we can navigate life's challenges with greater clarity and purpose

OUR AMBASSADOR.

As dr. Sophie von der Heyden oor iets passievol is, is dit om haar kennis van die see met kinders te deel

Sophie von der Heyden is die ma van twee jong kinders, en daarby 'n senior lektor aan die Universiteit Stellenbosch se departement plant- en dierekunde, waar sy as mariene bioloog en genetikus navorsing doen.

Binnekort sal sy nog 'n titel agter haar naam kan skryf: dié van kinderboekskrywer.

Sy is besig met die laaste slypwerk aan 'n nuwe veldgids oor die see vir kinders, met inligting oor diere en plante wat algemeen aan die kuslyn van Suider-Afrika voorkom.

“Die oogmerk is om te fassineer en op te voed; dis 'n identifiseringsgids en inligtingsbron wat jong mense oor Afrika se mariene omgewings wil inlig,” sê Von der Heyden, wat oorspronklik van Duitsland kom en 'n doktoraat in dierekunde en genetica aan die Universiteit van Oxford behaal het.

“Die gids behandel habitats, mariene diere en plante, en wil kinders inspireer om ons kuslyn te verken.”

Met die skryf van die teks was dit vir haar voortdurend 'n uitdaging om die wetenskaplike aspekte van die mariene omgewing op 'n toeganklike wyse te beskryf sonder om detail en wetenskaplike integriteit in te boet.

“Om vir kinders te skryf, was voorwaar 'n openbaring en groot pret,” beduie hierdie geesdriftige dosent.

“Ek vertrou dat die boek toekomstige generasies sal inspireer om bioloë, mariene chemici en geoloë, oseanograwe, klimaats- en oseaanmodelleerders, omgewingsbewaarders of planktonbioloë te word wat saam sal werk om ons uitsonderlike oseane te beskerm.

Sy het 'n gaping in die veldgidsmark vir leerders gesien, maar sê sy probeer iets skep waarby mense van alle ouderdomme baat sal kan vind.

Haar navorsing vir die boek is deels moontlik gemaak deur 'n toekenning van die Vereniging van Akademiese en Nie-fiksie-skrywers van Suid-Afrika (Academic and Non-fiction Authors Association of South Africa, of Anfasa), wat interessante akademiese en niefiksie-projekte ondersteun.

Die toekenning het haar reiskoste gedek en het Von der Heyden in haar vrye tyd van Namibië tot by die suidelike kusgebied van Mosambiek geneem.

Die idee vir die gids het 'n paar jaar gelede ontstaan toe sy saam met haar twee jong kinders die rotspele by Margate verken het.

“Ek het gehoor hoe 'n pa daar naby al hoe meer raadop raak met die vrae wat sy seuns stel oor dinge wat hulle in die pele ontdek het,” onthou sy.

“Kinders is gek oor die see, en ek het net daar besef dat 'n ouderdomsgerigte inligtings- en pretgids van groot waarde sou wees.”

Sy glo ouers het 'n baie belangrike rol te speel om 'n liefde vir die natuur – ook vir die see – by hul kinders te kweek.

“Gaan saam op uitstappies na die see en wees saam nuuskierig oor wat 'n mens alles kan ontdek,” stel sy voor.

“'n Besoek aan 'n plaaslike akwarium of aan 'n nieregneringsorganisasie wat by bewaring betrokke is, is ook goud werd.

“Kinders moet uit hul ouers se voorbeeld leer hoe om ons oseane met respek te hanteer,” glo Von der Heyden.

“Moenie onwettig seekos verwyder nie, ondermaatse vis huis toe vat of rommel strooi nie, want kinders sien raak wat ons doen.”

Rotspoele: moets en moenies

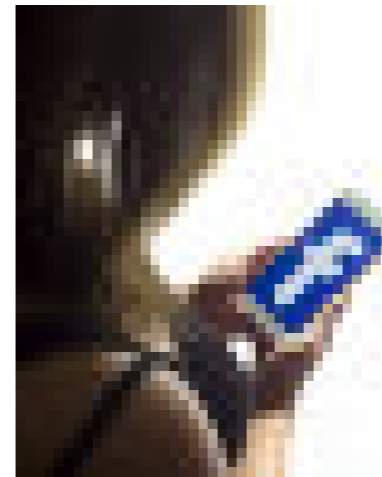

- Dra eerder skoene om jou voete teen skerp rotspunte te beskerm.
- Onthou om jou sonbrandmiddel aan te sit!
- Vermy hoogwater – dit is die gevaarlikste tyd by die see.
- Moenie te veel skulpe saamvat huis toe nie.
- Wees versigtig sodat jy nie stekelrige pampoentjies of giftige keëlskulpe optel nie.
- Moenie skulpdiere afhaal wat aan rotse vassuig nie, en plaas alles terug nadat jy dit ondersoek het.

What does fly eat?

Adult flies feed and harvest their larvae on organic decaying material. This includes, fruit, vegetables, meat, animal, plant secretions and human feces. Dit is vakansie tyd, en julle kan nou lekker in die huis speel, movies kyk en play station speel. Dit is nou die tyd om te verf en in te kleur.
 Als te doen wat jy nie by die skool kan doen nie.

Heerlik warm in die huis, help mamma met 'n paar werkies, dit is nou die tye om jou kas reg te pak en die kleré wat jou nie meer pas nie vir mamma uit te haal sodat mamma dit vir kindertjies kan gee wat nie het nie.

Maats onthou om dankie te sê vir pappa en mamma vir als wat julle het. Daar is so baie kinders daar buite wat nie het wat julle het nie.
 Vanaand voor jy gaan slaap sê dankie vir Liewe Jesus want dit is waar alles begin.

Lekker vakansie hou..
