Redakteurs Nota

Liewe lesers,

Die Augustus wind het ons tot in die lente in gewaai.

Met ons vrouedag agter die rug kan ons nou fokus op die laaste paar maande van die jaar.

Ons vrouedag was heerlik, ons sien julle volgende jaar weer met iets nuuts.

Met die lente voor ons deur kan ons nou weer tyd in ons tuin spandeer, plant en net om die swembad kuier.
Geniet elke oomblik buite in jou tuin.

Vir eers moet ek torsiens sê tot volgende maand bly gesond en sterkte met jou dingetjies wat gedoen moet word.

Hou ons Facebook blad dop vir alles wat gebeur jy mag niks mis nie.

Dear reader,

It is that time of the year again.

The days are getting longer and warmer. The grass starting to turn green, evidence of new life with buds on the trees and flowers starting to show and bloom.

Take a minute to just stand still, look around and listen to the birds chirping. This is what we call creation, created by our Almighty God for us to enjoy.

So let us all welcome spring, and say spring is in the air.

Much Love

Julien du Plessis

Hello September!

After one very cold winter, it is finally time for Spring. A time where nature will bring colour into our lives once again and be a symbol of new beginnings. It is never too late to start blooming.

It is not about your age nor your circumstances, it is about looking back on your own journey and acknowledging the growth you have made up until this point.

This growth doesn't have to be major or compared to someone else's life. Once you see how far you have come, you will realize that you are just like the beautiful flowers in Spring - busy blooming.

Till next month Bianca

Beste Top Vibe Leesers,

September is hier en dit blom oral, die bome kry weer lewe en alles word weer groen. Die tyd van faal wees is verby, tyd van positiwiteit is hier, begin jou dag deur om dankie te sê, dankie dat jy jou oë oop gemaak het, dankie dat jy weer asem kan haal. Ons is geneig om dit wat om ons is vir "Granted" te vat, maar eintlik het ons soveel om dankbaar te wees.

Ons het laasmaand ons Vrouedag funksie gehou by The Wine Barrel dit was 'n groot sukses. Ons het soveel vrouens weer ontmoed, nuwe vriendinne gemaak en nuwe herinneringe. Ons "motivational speaker" Frederick Storm het so mooi praatjie gedoen en sy het soveel seer gedeel met ons wat nogal 'n eye opener was dat ons as vrouens baie meer werd is as wat ons dink. Ons kan soveel meer bereik as ons net die kans wil waag en dat ons niemand se slaansak is nie, nie "mentally of phisically" nie.

As 'n Mamma van 'n pragtige seun probeer ek vir hom 'n voorbeeld wees hoe om ander te behandel en as jy respek toon sal jy resek ontvang. Die 24ste September vier ons Erfenisdag. Voor 1994 was die dag as Shakadag bekend, waartydens Zoeloes hulle koning herdenk het. Ná demokrasie-ording is dit omskep in 'n dag waarop alle kulture hulle eie erfenis kan herdenk. Ons Suid-Afrikaners het dit somer vinnig geerf na National Braai Dag! Ons almal hou 'n lekker Boere braai en vriende en familie kom saam en kuier lekker. Wat is julle beplanning vir Braai dag!

Pas mekaar mooi op tot volgende keer.

Liefde

Carin 😊

By Lelanie van Niekerk

When the first National Women's Day was celebrated, I was working for a medical company.

In 2001, a few ladies were selected to attend the Women's Day seminar...

It was held at Gallagher Convention Centre, and if I recall, there were a few very well-known celebs there like Miss SA Jo-Ann Strauss that year, if I can recall both of us went into the bathroom at the same time and it was casual just a nob of the head like I know you and hello nothing like mad fans Lol...

Yes, our National Woman's Day if I can recall I did write about the origin of our National Woman's Day...

This year I got a few questions from our beloved opposites side..." Why is there not a men's Day?"

So, to all the GUYS! Everyday must be a men's day... to know that you are loved and appreciated by you family.... With love from Me.

To get back to the question that is asked around the world each year and it's and unanswered around the world each year and it's and unanswered question.

So, with a bit research this is what I got...Lol

"You don't have to be an ardent feminist or militant women's libber to work out that women, unlike men, have had to fight untold battles to achieve gender equality for hundreds of years."

Ja!!! I don't think its okay to just say that this is the only reason, yes, it's not as easy for us to achieve certain things in life then it's for our opposite sides... But I would say this it does not excuse us from behaving that we don't need them in our lives...

Men in this age are not recognized enough by their families, work, government, and it's not about the skin color we are all God's children and we are woman need to up lift them... there is a saying behind every great man stands a good woman....

But this will come as a shock to you there is an International Men's Day and it started already back in the 1960's but first recorder in 1992, it's now held every 19th November.

International Men's Day was first celebrated in 1999 by Dr Jerome Teelucksingh, Professor of History, University of the West Indies in Trinidad, and Tobago, to commemorate his father's birth anniversary. He further encouraged everyone to use this day to bring up issues that concern men and boys.

However, International Men's Day was inaugurated in 1992 by Thomas Oaster. It was conceived a year earlier. The day owing to its importance was then revived in 1999 by Dr Jerome Teelucksingh, a history lecturer at University of the West Indies in Trinidad and Tobago. Dr Teelucksingh chose to host International Men's Day on November 19 to mark his father's birthday and to celebrate how on the same date, a decade earlier (1989) Trinidad and Tobago's soccer team had united the country to qualify for the soccer world cup.

So just a question why is Men's Day only focused on men's health and gender equality? If Men's Day was celebrated like Woman's Day things would have been different...

It's no wonder why God created them first is because they are special none like them, I personally think we are not celebrating them enough we need to get our men back into the seat of ruler of their houses...

I have spoken to many men and it's not a racial thing it's every where that men think that they don't matter... the woman has taken the place of men and my feelings surrounding this is overwhelming to say the least...

How many of us get annoyed when our husband say's no... we end up getting what we want without thinking what we are doing...if I can take my own husband and talk about him... in the past 26 years of our relationship I don't think that I ever not listen to him maybe a few times... he is my everything and would do anything for him...

But looking at him closely somewhere he felt not worthy of our love, somewhere he felt not appreciated, somehow, he feels that his words does not mean anything...

How did we get to that point that our men that was born to lead, don't feel they can....

If you are not married, divorced, and have a son think about this... teach your son's to be leaders at heart we need good men in our lives today and for the future of our country...

And don't get me wrong I'm not saying Woman's Day is not write it's how we as woman interoperate it.. I would gladly say if it was not for the first woman's day I attended back in 2001 don't think I would have been the woman I am today... that day many things changed for me...

But like that day our men needs that from us too...

Let's reset and rebuild our men of today

To the men who are not afraid to be vulnerable, the men who support women in their lives, the men who fight discrimination, the men who are allies, we honour and love you.

Why did Jesus fold the napkin?

Why Did Jesus Fold the Napkin?

This is one I can honestly say I have never seen circulating so; if this touches you, you may want to forward it.

Why did Jesus fold the linen burial cloth after His resurrection? I never noticed this....

The Gospel of John (20:7) tells us that the napkin, which was placed over the face of Jesus, was not just thrown aside like the grave clothes. The Bible takes an entire verse to tell us that the napkin was neatly folded, and was placed separate from the grave clothes. Early Sunday morning, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance. She ran and found Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved. She said, 'They have taken the Lord's body out of the tomb, and I don't know where they have put him!' Peter and the other disciple ran to the tomb to see.. The other disciple outran Peter and got there first. He stooped and looked in and saw the linen cloth lying there, but he didn't go in.

Then Simon Peter arrived and went inside. He also noticed the linen wrappings lying there, while the cloth that had covered Jesus' head was folded up and lying to the side.

Was that important? Absolutely!

Is it really significant? Yes!

In order to understand the significance of the folded napkin, you have to understand a little bit about Hebrew tradition of that day. The folded napkin had to do with the Master and Servant, and every Jewish boy knew this tradition.

When the servant set the dinner table for the master, he made sure that it was exactly the way the master wanted it...

The table was furnished perfectly, and then the servant would wait, just out of sight, until the master had finished eating, and the servant would not dare touch that table, until the master was finished. Now, if the master were done eating, he would rise from the table, wipe his fingers, his mouth, and clean his beard, and would wad up that napkin and toss it onto the table.

The servant would then know to clear the table. For in those days, the wadded napkin meant, 'I'm done.'

But if the master got up from the table, and folded his napkin, and laid it beside his plate, the servant would not dare touch the table, because..... The folded napkin meant, 'I'm coming back!'

He is Coming Back!

So; if this touches you, you may want to forward it. And praise the name of Jesus!
