Dear Readers,

The bond between siblings .

Growing up together was never easy.

We would fight a lot, get each other in trouble but over time we became friends. Growing up a lot of people though that me and my little sister were twins because we are close in age but mostly because my mom loved dressing us up in the same clothes but the older we get I have realized that we have the same taste in clothing, she takes my clothes without asking when she feels like it and I get to do the same. If we were younger that would have caused a fight but now we are supportive of each other. We still have our disagreements sometimes but at the end of the day we are there for each other no matter what. Sisters by chance, friends by choice.

Take care Elibie

Hennie's Computers ^(PTY) Ltd

Rest Assured, Quality You WILL Receive!

More Than Just I.T.

“Your Technology Partner!”

In today's fast-paced digital world, technology is the backbone of both personal and professional life. Whether you're setting up a new laptop, managing a business network, or exploring the latest software solutions, having reliable IT support is essential. At Hennie's Computers, we believe technology should empower you, not overwhelm you. That's why we offer a one-stop shop for all your technology needs, from hardware to expert advice and ongoing support. Let's dive into the world of IT services and discover how they can simplify your tech life.

Understanding IT Support Services

When it comes to technology, things can get complicated quickly. That's where IT support services come in. Think of them as your friendly neighbourhood tech experts, ready to help you troubleshoot problems, install new equipment, and keep your systems running smoothly. Whether you're an individual needing help with your personal computer or a business looking to secure your network, IT support services cover a wide range of solutions tailored to your needs. For example, if you run a small business, IT services might include setting up your office network, installing business software, and providing regular maintenance to prevent disruptions. For individuals, it could mean helping you choose the right laptop, installing anti-virus software, or recovering lost files. Understanding the meaning of IT services helps you appreciate the value of having a reliable partner who can handle the technical side,

Tel 016 004 0130

www.henniescomputers.co.za - shop@henniescomputers.co.za

Some common IT support services include:

- Hardware set-up and repair: From desktops, laptops, mobile devices to printers and networking devices.
- Software installation and updates: Ensuring your programs are up-to-date and running efficiently.
- Network management: Setting up and maintaining secure and reliable internet connections.
- Data backup and recovery: Protecting your valuable information from loss or damage.
- Cybersecurity solutions: Safeguarding your devices and data from threats and attacks.

By partnering with a trusted IT service provider like Hennie's Computers, you gain access to expert knowledge and quality products that keep your technology working for you, not against you.

What is the meaning of IT services?

IT services refer to the broad range of technology-related support and solutions designed to help individuals and businesses manage their digital environments. These services encompass everything from installing new hardware and software to maintaining complex networks and ensuring cybersecurity.

At its core, IT services aim to:

- Enhance productivity by minimizing downtime and technical issues.
- Improve security to protect sensitive data and systems.
- Provide expert guidance on technology choices and upgrades.
- Offer ongoing support to adapt to changing technology needs.

Lewenslig Centrum visited Happy Hooves for a day full of Fun and Friendships

Lewenslig Centrum Visits Happy Hooves for a Day of Fun and Friendship

This past week, Happy Hooves once again had the privilege of welcoming Lewenslig Centrum for our annual visit – a day that has become a highlight on our calendar. The smiles, laughter, and joy shared made it an unforgettable occasion for everyone involved.

The Children and adults from Lewenslig had the opportunity to interact closely with our horses, brushing and grooming them while learning more about these gentle animals.

For many, this hands-on experience is both therapeutic and exciting, creating a special bond between horse and human.

Of course, no Happy Hooves day would be complete without pony rides! With the help of our caring team, visitors were able to enjoy safe, guided rides – an adventure filled with courage, happiness and plenty of cheering.

The fun did not stop there – tractor rides around the farmyard added an extra thrill, giving everyone a chance to take in the fresh air and countryside atmosphere. Everyone got the chance to decorate horse shoe-shaped cookies, a sweet activity that was enjoyed just as much as the delicious snacks afterwards. With plenty to eat and drink, and ice cream lollies to top it all off, the day was filled with treats for body and soul.

We are deeply grateful to Lewenslig Centrum for visiting us again this year. Their energy and spirit bring so much light to our stables, and it is always a joy to share the beauty of horses and farm life with them.

At Happy Hooves, we believe in creating meaningful connections – between people, animals, and nature. Days like these remind us why we do what we do, and we already look forward to next year's visit!

Grace with Purpose: My Miss Global South

Africa Journey

Being a finalist for Miss Global South Africa 2025 is more than an achievement—it's a mission. For me, pageantry has never been just about the stage or the crown; it's about using my voice to create impact. With a background in counselling, dance, and community advocacy, I've learned that true beauty lies in compassion, confidence, and purpose.

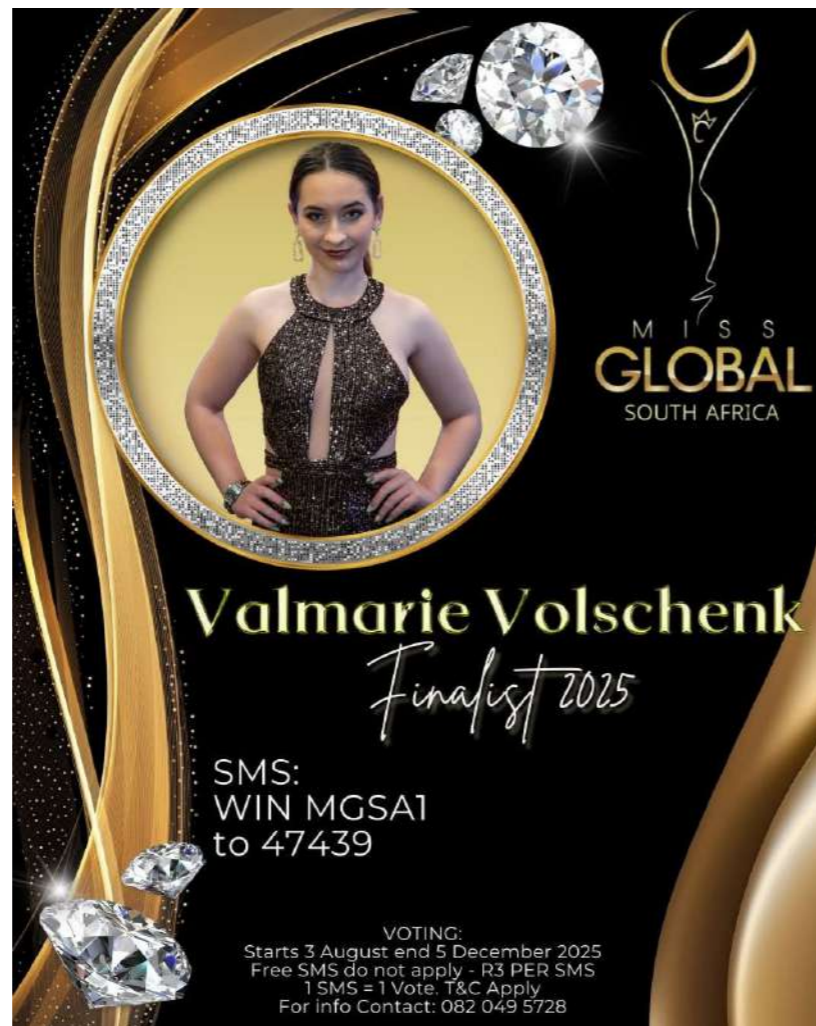

My passion for mental health awareness runs deep. I've seen how silence can weigh on people and how understanding can transform lives. Through this platform, I want to normalize conversations about mental wellbeing and show that resilience is a form of strength we can all cultivate.

This journey has pushed me to grow in ways I didn't expect. It's refined my confidence, taught me the value of authenticity, and reminded me that even the smallest act of courage can inspire others.

As I prepare for the next stage of the competition, I'm incredibly grateful for the encouragement and support I've received so far. Every message, every vote, and every sponsorship helps me continue this journey with purpose. By standing with me, you're not just supporting a contestant—you're supporting a cause that uplifts other. Join me as I represent South Africa with pride and passion. Follow my journey, cast your vote, or partner with me through sponsorship to help bring the Miss Global crown home—and make a meaningful difference along the way.

TAPPUTI CELEBRATES ITS 3RD BIRTHDAY WITH A DREAM REALIZED IN THE FAYOUM DESERT

A vision eight years in the making — Tapputi marks its 10th milestone shoot, launches its Festive Season Collection, and celebrates its clients: One Tribe, One Essence.

FAYOUM DESERT, EGYPT – October 2025: Luxury perfume house Tapputi Egyptian Perfume Oils, owned by Tapputi International Ltd, celebrated its 3rd birthday and 10th milestone shoot with a cinematic production set deep in Egypt's Fayoum Desert, where golden sands meet the shimmering Magic Lake.

The shoot, themed “Golden Essence – A Gift of Timeless Luxury,” not only captures a dream eight years in the making but also marks the launch of Tapputi's Festive Season Collection and the exquisite Nefertiti's Garden Limited Edition Luxe Box, dropping 25 October 2025. Most importantly, it celebrates Tapputi's clients — One Tribe, One Essence — whose loyalty and passion have shaped the brand's journey

Dream Eight Years in the Making

“From the very beginning, it's been our dream to shoot in the heart of the Fayoum Desert,” art,” says Founder and CEO, Alishia van Deventer. “It took eight years of planning, patience, and persistence — but standing on those dunes overlooking the Magic Lake, it was clear this wasn't just our dream; it was a celebration for every member of our tribe who believes in Tapputi.”

Led by internationally acclaimed Art Director & Photographer, Dina Yosry, and Creative Director, Danelle Liebenberg ElFar, the Tapputi team journeyed six hours from Port Said to Fayoum — one of the world's oldest natural oases — for what became a transformative and unforgettable production.

The adventure included dune rides, sandboarding, and fierce desert winds that challenged the team. But when the sun broke through, the desert revealed its magic, providing the perfect canvas for Tapputi's story of heritage, luxury, and connection.

The Setting: Fayoum's Magic and Majesty

The Fayoum Desert is often called “Egypt's Hidden Jewel” — home to the mystical Magic Lake, whose colors shift with the sun, and the Valley of the Whales (Wadi El-Hitan), a UNESCO World Heritage Site preserving ancient whale fossils.

This unique landscape mirrors Tapputi's philosophy: blending ancient tradition with modern elegance, and creating a space where people, culture, and beauty converge.

An International Celebration of Essence

The shoot featured a collaboration of Egyptian and South African teams, with international models bringing Tapputi's vision of unity, beauty, and luxury to life.

🌟 Art Direction & Photography: Dina Yosry

🌟 Creative Direction: Danelle Liebenberg ElFar

🌟 Videography: Mahy Ahmed

🌟 Models: Rola Kather, Youssef Elezaby, Omnia Hussein, and Danelle Liebenberg ElFar

Tapputi extends heartfelt gratitude to the behind-the-scenes crew — stylists, lighting technicians, coordinators, and local guides — who transformed the desert into a living masterpiece.

“This shoot was not just a production,” says Yosry. “It was a global celebration of artistry, heritage, and the incredible community that is Tapputi's tribe.”

Golden Essence. One Tribe. One Essence. The Nefertiti's Garden Limited Edition Luxe Box, launching 25 October, leads Tapputi's Festive Season Collection — a tribute to timeless elegance, heritage, and the loyal clients who form One Tribe.

“Three years of Tapputi. Ten shoots. One unforgettable desert. And eight years of belief,” says Van Deventer. “This moment is for our tribe — our clients, supporters, and friends — because together, we are One Tribe. One Essence. Always.”
